

Drop In Parenting Discussion
Friday January 14 from 8:30 – 9:15 am

The theme for our second drop in parenting discussion will be NOT LISTENING or NON COMPLIANCE. It's a topic that comes up in our discussions at school, and probably does at home too!

Some things we'll think about together include:

- What we really mean when we say a child doesn't listen (i.e. children don't always do what we ask them to do)
- Saying what we will do and then doing it
- Some recipes for cooperation (and what cooperation means)

Join us for coffee and conversation with other parents about these and any other questions you may have. Although a sign up will be posted for planning purposes, all are welcome, even if you can't stay long or if you need to come late!

On February 1 there will be an evening discussion focusing on conflict resolution. Save the date, and look for details soon!

P.S. No place for younger siblings? That's ok, come anyway, for as long as you can!
