LEARNING CIRCLE PRESCHOOL HOSTS PRESENTATION BY PRISCILLA SLOANE THURSDAY MARCH 19, 2009, 7:30-9 PM

Canton, MA, March 5 2009 - Learning Circle Preschool, a non-profit school for preschoolers and kindergarteners ages 2.9-7, invites the community to join us for a presentation by Priscilla Hayden-Sloane on Sensory Integration: Understanding Behavior from a Sensory Perspective

This workshop is designed to enhance your understanding of the relationship between a child's sensory experiences and his or her ability to respond appropriately to social and environmental demands. You will identify techniques and strategies to enhance the development of behavioral self-regulation in young children.

Priscilla Hayden-Sloane, MHA, OTR/L, LEND Fellow is an Occupational Therapist with 26 years of experience working in a wide variety of clinical, school, and home care settings. She currently provides evaluation, consultation, and support services to the Norwood Public Schools in Norwood, MA as a member of the Early Childhood Assessment Team. Priscilla has provided educational programs for parents, teachers and clinical professionals and looks forward to sharing ideas with you at the Learning Circle Preschool.

For more information about this presentation or about other Learning Circle Preschool programs, please contact the Director, Katrina Selawsky, at 781-828-4800.
